

Risk Assessment Template for Opening Church Buildings to the Public

Version Control

Issue Date	Version Number	Issued by
21 st March 2022	11	The House of Bishops COVID-19 Recovery Group

This update has been reviewed to reflect the removal of restrictions from 24th February 2022 and the publication of the Government's Living With Covid guidance. The Church of England's guidance may also be a helpful reference point.

Completing a risk assessment is still a recommended step in deciding on uses of church buildings, even though legal restrictions on activities and gatherings of people have ended. You can use this template, or one provided by the Health and Safety Executive, or one of your own devising, so long as it identifies risks and assigns suitable mitigations so everyone is clear who is responsible for which steps and activities.

It is recommended that you carry out a separate risk assessment for each activity type e.g. public worship, use by community groups, concerts etc. and that these are regularly reviewed with reference to local Covid infection rates and other relevant circumstances. You may decide to have different mitigations or safety measures in place for different events. Where activities run simultaneously or back-to-back, each iteration of the risk assessment should address the shared or consequential risk.

More information is available on the Church of England Coronavirus page and on the Government's website.

Carrying out a risk assessment

1. Agree what activities you are planning for:
  - Private prayer
  - Public worship with or without congregational singing
  - Funerals, weddings, baptisms, ordinations
  - Livestreaming or recording services
  - A choir or music group singing indoors as part of a public, livestreamed or recorded service
  - Formal childcare or where part of a school
  - Essential voluntary and public services
  - Use as a vaccination or testing centre
  - Community and support groups
  - Provision of youth services
  - Opening shops/cafes
  - Opening for visitors/tourists/educational visits as a heritage attraction
  - Opening for concerts, plays etc
2. Consider the hazards:
  - Transmission of COVID-19
  - Hazards arising from using the church in a different way to usual
  - Shared or consequential risks of activities running simultaneously or back-to-back (e.g. crossover of people at entry/exit points)

Read the guidance and think about how it relates specifically to your church. What constraints are there? Consider how people will arrive at the church, including if they will need to wait or queue outside; how people will enter and leave the church; circulation inside: from the entrance to the worship space and out again; circulation within the worship space; also access to other areas including the toilet(s).

3. Consider who might be harmed and how. Read the guidance and think about how the activities you are planning will affect different groups of people. The risks are not different for larger churches as long as they are properly managed, but having any significant numbers of people coming through your building makes the possible impact – in particular someone with COVID-19 coming into contact with others – higher than in smaller churches with fewer people. Consider your particular circumstances and adapt the checklist below as appropriate. Gathered congregations and major services may attract people from far afield, which is likely to add to the risk profile. Consider whether you need to consult your wider membership and users.

4. Using the risk assessment checklist below as a template:

- add in mitigations for any risks that are particular to your circumstances that may not be on the list;
- record what you need to do for each activity to go ahead safely;
- consider any equipment you need and any temporary changes you might need to make to the church;
- check back against your list of activities to confirm which ones can go ahead and when.
